PRAYER FOR THESE TIMES

Psalm 46

GOD IS OUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH

God is for us a refuge and strength,
a helper close at hand, in time of distress:
so we shall not fear though the earth should rock,
though the mountains fall into the depths of the sea,
even though its waters rage and foam,
even though the mountains be shaken by its waves.

The Lord of hosts is with us:
The God of Jacob is our stronghold.

The waters of a river give joy to God's city,
the holy place where the Most High dwells.
God is within, it cannot be shaken;
God will help it at the dawning of the day.
Nations are in tumult, kingdoms are shaken:
He lifts his voice, the earth shrinks away.

Come, consider the works of the Lord
the redoubtable deeds he has done on the earth.
He puts an end to wars over all the earth;
the bow he breaks, the spear he snaps.
He burns the shields with fire.
Be still and know that I am God,
supreme among the nations, supreme on the earth.

NOW

As I sit here and ponder the here the why and the now,
I think of my family and all the things I have done so far.
I marvel at the beauty of Nature, the sun, the sky and the stars and how awful life would be should the light from them all be gone.
A world of happiness, laughter and joy has no place for hatred or war.
Now as the world we live in is full of fear and tears,
let us take time out to show how much we can care.
Take Time to think of all the simple things that really should matter like the birds and bees and all the beautiful flowers.
Time as we know, it waits for no man.
So let's be sure to make the most of it, now, before it's all gone.
